BIG TEST FOR COCKBURN TODAY

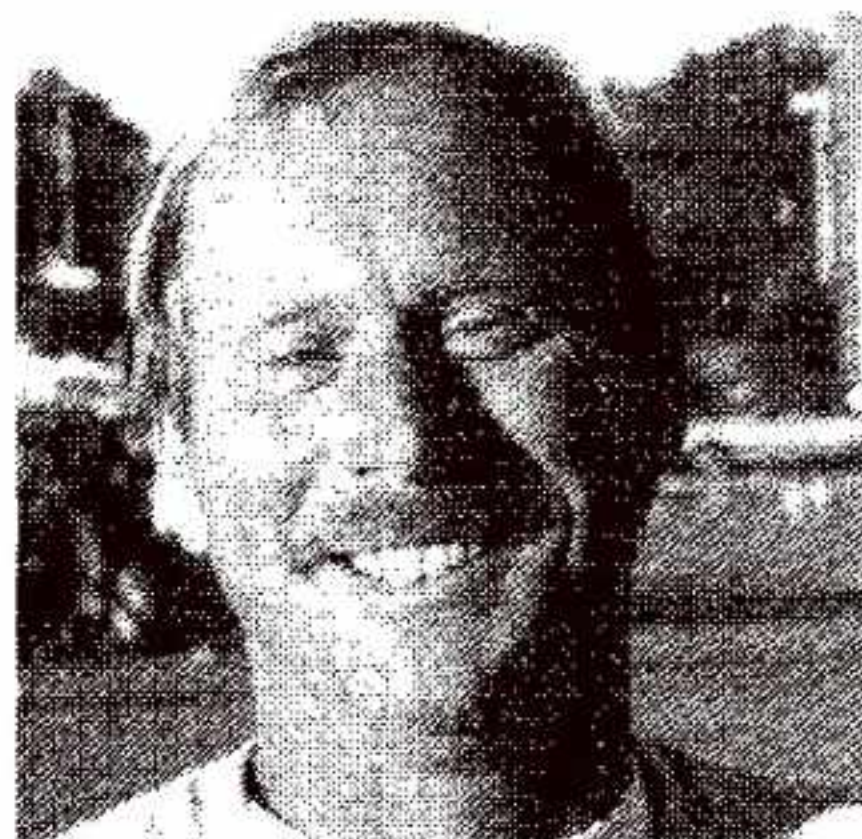

Cockburn avenged their first round loss to Southern Port-Hamilton with an impressive 18 point victory in the Port Derby at Beale Park last Sunday.

However Cockburn almost lost their grip on the match early in the last quarter when they allowed Southern Port to get within 4 points after Cockburn had led by 3 goals at three quarter time.

Their victory was their sixth in succession and an ideal warm-up for their big clash with undefeated Melville at Beale Park Today.

Melville were typically ruthless last Sunday when they crushed Belmont 33.17 to 6.12. Belmont were helpless in the first half as Melville put together some of the best football seen in the WAFA this year.

At half time Melville had kicked 20 goals and the outcome of the game simply became a formality. But it was no formality for Swan Valley in their match with Midland at the Swan Valley Sportsmens Oval. Midland kept pressure on Swans throughout the first half and trailed at the big break by only 2 goals. However in the remaining quarters they broke away and eventually won 17.21 to 9.8

Today's round of fixtures are really outstanding, with the feature match undoubtedly the clash between Rams and Cockburn. Both teams are in peak form and had impressive wins last week.

But Melville are determined to keep their unbeaten record intact and Cockburn are going to have an enormous task in front of them today.

Melville go into the match without brilliant rover Geoff Truscott. He has a hamstring injury and will be sidelined for several weeks, but there is still plenty of talent in the Melville line-up. Cockburn will again look to the skill of centre-half-back Randall Prowse, ruck-rover Chris Harris, centre-half-forward Trevor Brickhill and centreman Paul Zuvella, who came back into top form last week. This will be an excellent encounter, but Melville should have the edge in experience and that will be the difference between the two teams.

Mosman Park are back in action today after their bye last week and they will be out to score a victory over Belmont at Forster Park today. Mosman Park appear to have overcome most of their problems with injury and with skilled players like Barry Haydinger, Steve Rogers, Ian Earl, Jerome Clayton and Jeff Adams they should be too strong for Belmont.

Southern Port will want to make amends for their loss last week when they take on Midland at Davilak Oval. Sam Maskos, Kevin Pausin, George Mateljan, Gary Caple, Camello Locantro give Southern Port a touch of class. A feature of this match should be the contest between Midland's high flying centre-half-forward Mark Bond and centre-half-back Pausin.

TERRY FILKEN
BOUNDARY UMPIRE

Terry is 27 years old, married and with one daughter. He is a third year student at the University of Western Australia. Being originally from New South Wales for the early part of his life has concentrated on Rugby League Football. Asked why he had taken up "Aussie Rules" he said "I enjoyed watching rules footy and besides I thought that running the boundary would keep me fit". "It also allows me to be part of the game".

Well good on you Terry, keep up the good work. Best of luck in your studies too.

FOOTBALL HEADQUARTERS

Cockburn To Tackle Top Team

Last weeks games were a triumph for our three coaches, Garry Stewart (League), Phillip Gerovich (Reserves) and Lee Kelly (Colts). The three wins against Southern Port-Hamilton were a complete reversal of results in the first round. It showed clearly the improvement by all teams in the past seven weeks.

Today we play Melville and the league team should not be deterred by the undefeated tag that Melville currently holds. All games should be well contested and there is every reason why our teams should feel confident of winning all three games. Our players have the ability to be the leaders in all three grades of the competition, and today is their chance just what they can do.

Our clubs outstanding players last week were; Doug Searle (Colts), Randall Prowse (League), and Phillip Gerovich (Reserves). Doug Searle has shown great courage, combined with strong marking and long kicking in each of the games that he has played this year. His display last week against Southern Port was another inspirational effort which lifted his team mates.

Doug was well supported by Steve Bowe who is also having a great year. Steven's accurate disposal and his ability to set-up the play for his forwards have been highlights of his game.

Randall Prowse showed last week he has lost none of his marking skill. He took many fine marks under pressure last week, especially in the final term as Southern Port tried to break through our defence.

Our league Captain Chris Harris is now prominent in the "Bali Sunset Club" Best Player Award. Chris has shown consistently good form in all games. Sometimes the extra responsibility of leading a team can adversely effect a players own form. Its great to see that this has not been the case for Chris as he has shown himself to be an outstanding leader, particularly when the side are under pressure.

Our President and Committee extend an invitation to all Melville players and supporters to join us for drinks after the game in our licenced premises.

"Three teams in the four in 84".

EAGLE EYE.

Belmont Social Notes

BELMONT NEED TO LIFT

Once again the reserves team were beaten easily, and again it was because of the lack of teamwork. Good players for the team were; Peter Best and Colin Fitzgerald.

The league team put in a dismal performance, especially in the first half where Melville won the game by kicking 20 plus goals. At half-time coach Busher didn't have much to say, all he could ask for was an improvement. Players started to put their bodies in and gave the coach some improvement.

Good players were; Gonzo, Eddie Hoyer and Cuppa.

When only 25-30 players turn up to training for two teams, you can't expect them to perform on Sundays. Lets have a change and get all the players down to training.

It was good to see so many players staying back at the Melville club for drinks. How about a few more staying back when we have home games eh!

SUNDAY REVIEW - 8

Everybody keep Wednesday 4th of July free for we're holding a Quiz Nite at the Carlisle Hotel, and also don't forget about the "Paper Wrap".

Busy Bombers

There will be a "Hundred club Evening" at Napoleons Nite-club on the 13th of June. At the Memorial Hall on the 29th of June a "Crazy Nite" and finally a "Players Trip 'Fund'" evening on the 13th July.

Players get behind your committee to make the trip to the V.F.L. Grand Final a success. Raffle tickets are now on sale and the fund-raising committee will decide your cost per ticket when the time comes.....

RAMS ROMP IN

We as a club are very pleased to see that the W.A.F.A. Association has made alternative fixtures for future colts games. We consider our future revolves around our colts and regular games are essential.

Against Mosman, our colts had a good win and we look forward to meeting Cockburn, the only team to beat us in the first round.

Our colts win who impressed last week were; Darren Smyth, Joe Gonnella and the other 16 players. Special thanks to Bob Bunce and his partner in crime, for their efforts so far this season.

DAD'S ARMY PLUS ONE

Again proved that on a dry day are a very hard team to beat. Under the direction of their coach they are blending into a very good side.

The return of "Wrong Way Barton" from Melbourne, the good form of Dom Strombolini (Smith) and the youthful legs of Pig and fine form of younger players Muir, Capes and Cullen, have strengthened Dad's Army. Good to see straight boots Bottrell return to the playing field. Kicking practice for Botts and Pig this week - 1-14 Gents...

Is the rumour true that "Hamstring" Quinn Neally dragged Margaret Ward in the last quarter of the reserves for missing a goal. Who makes decisions when the boss is away?

Our league side put together its best half of football for the season against Belmont. The team performed well in most areas, but we must strive for all the four quarters.

Gareth "Tiny Tim" Stewart turned in a fine performance with good support from Dave Cox, Putty Nose Cooper, Fred Senior and Superboot Micale. Good to see Lou Glamia giving advice to our ruck division on Sunday.

Who was the player seen pulling the wool over the Belmont player? Quick thinking "Rash" X "Boobie". Another nickname "Nigger".

We thank all Belmont players and supporters for staying back after the game. The Melville Rams look forward to Cockburn today....

4. D. HARPER (Cockburn) - reported by field umpire and goal umpire for kicking.

GUILTY - SUSPENDED 6 PLAYING DATES OF HIS CLUB.

Umpires Corner

I have recently asked umpires to stay back after the main game and support the home club. Good to see them made welcome with the odd jug. Thanks to those clubs for their support.

Don't forget the umps at 3/4 time and quarter times, I'm sure they would love a drink, just as the players do.

Getting back to after game drinks it concerns me to notice a couple of clubs who don't stay and support the home club. I even heard one club even told their players not to stay. This should concern us all as these selfish attitudes do nothing to strengthen the Association or add to the reputation of their own club.

Thanks to most players for providing the umpires with some excellent football, however disappointing to hear of some behind the play incidents.

No doubt the clubs will take severe action against these players involved. Lets hope so for the continued success of football in general.

Well done Peter Stanton on your 50th game last week with the Association. Also congratulations to Vaughan Hookway and Michael Simpson for the recent additions to your respective families.
